

Need a Letter of Invitation to Attain a Visitor Visa?

If you are planning to visit Canada or the USA to attend employment interviews, but have difficulty obtaining a visitor visa, the RWH INVITATION LETTER SERVICE is for you!

We will contact a reasonable number of relevant companies in your chosen city to attract interest in you, in an effort to obtain a letter of invitation from a company willing to interview you sometime in the future.

This letter may then be submitted as part of the application for a visitor visa in addition to other supporting documents including copies of the return air ticket, a letter from your current employer indicating specific time off and the date you are expected to return to work, and copies of degrees and professional credentials.

Cost: US$500***

*Acceptance onto the RWH Invitation Letter Service is based on a positive employment appraisal. If you are interested in this service, you must first order the RWH Employability Report.

The RWH Employability Report assesses your chances of finding suitable employment in your chosen city and provides you with recommendations on an effective job search strategy. The cost of this report is US$195.

Please note: The letter of invitation is not an offer of employment, job offer or offer of arranged employment.
